

FLNOW

Communications Intern Program

The Florida National Organization for Women (FL NOW) is a State Chapter of the National Organization for Women (NOW)

Our Purpose is to take action through intersectional grassroots activism, promote feminist ideals, lead societal change, eliminate discrimination, and to achieve and protect the equal rights of all self-identified women, girls, WOC, trans men, and non-binary folks in all aspects of social, political and economic life.

We Support Reproductive Rights and Justice, Economic Justice, Ending Violence Against Women, Racial Justice, LGBTQ Rights, and Constitutional Equality.

Scope of unpaid internship

Your job will be to work directly under the FL NOW Communications Director, closely with the rest of the FL NOW Board, and local chapter leaders around the state and coalition partners. You will help produce materials used for fundraising, membership drives, education, and community engagement, essays, op-eds, and articles to submit to media sources, and press releases. Your efforts will help to shape the future of our state, and influence the rest of our nation.

Requirements:

Excellent internet, word processing and spreadsheet skills (Microsoft Office).

Strong organizational skills

Strong interpersonal skills

Capable of attending phone/online meetings

Effective writing and communication skills

Ability to initiate and complete tasks in a timely manner

Travel with either FL NOW President or possibly other board members desirable but not required, transportation and temporary housing may be provided when needed.

Must be willing to work with NOW's Coalition Partners: ACLU, Planned Parenthood, Human Rights Watch, Progress Florida, Equality Florida, Florida Immigrant and other progressive organizations.

To apply for a FL NOW Community Organizer internship

Write an essay about why you want to intern for FLNOW, submit it, your resume and references, to communications@flnow.org. Please highlight previous work on these or related issues.